

Sunday May 19.

After the company attended church at I. M. Hogsetts and heard a patriotic sermon from Rev. Flaherty, it then marched to J. Varner's. Just as the company arrived the Cavalry under Captain Andrew McNeel on its return from Philippi came in sight. They were received with all honors. The company then heard a sermon from Rev. J. E. Moore and were dismissed and entertained by John Varner, Josiah Herold, Col. Gatewood at Big Spring. We then marched across the mountain. That night they stayed at John and Jacob Conrads and at John McLaughlins. Rained at intervals all day.

(He stopped keeping a record at the end of the third day)

This campaign lasted several weeks, yet cost Pocahontas only $68.68. In speaking of this march the old soldiers referred to it as the "Tin Cup Campaign", a cup was all the equipment furnished them. They provided their own arms.

The late Hugh P. McLaughlin always took delight in relating his experiences, as a boy, on this "Tin Cup Campaign". Somewhere along the road to Philippi they came to a farm where there was a mowing machine with its tongue propped up, in a shed. Few of them had ever seen a mower, and word was passed down the ranks that it was a cannon. One boy took a look at it, and remarked on the length of the ramrod.

Pocahontas - 4

This company was engaged in the following battles: Philippi
(this was while it was known as Pocahontas Rescues). Mc Dowell,
Winchester, Cross Keys, Port Republic, 7 days fight around Richmond,
Slaughter Mountain, Second Manassas, Bristow Station, Sharpsburg, Fredericksburg. Second Winchester, Gettysburg, Mine Run, and Wilderness. In the latter the 25th Regiment was captured. Co 1 from Pocahontas had been reduced (killed) to 17 men. Of these 17 men, eleven lived through the war, the other 6 died in prison.

When captured they were first taken to Point Lookout Maryland.
Then to Elmira, N. Y.

On Monday, January 13, eleven volunteers from Pocahontas County took bus for Clarksburg where they were inducted into the army service. They were:

- 839-V 6 Bert H. Waugh
- 540-V 7 Jacob Woodrow Shinnaberry
- 838-V-11 Wayne Geiger
- 641-V-12 Jacob Gene Loury
- 130-V-13 Ralph Leon Long
- V-14 Wm. Raymond Bowers

- 718-V-16 Roy J. Houchin
- 421-V-19 Joseph Leonard Moses, Jr

- 694-V-22 Norman Wilson Phillips

On Thursday, January 16, another soldier will go out to Clarksburg under the selective service, in the person of 348-V-9 Thurl William Gary.

In about five hours the young volunteers were in Clarksburg at the induction station. They will be sent from there to army posts to be thoroughly and properly trained for our and their own protection should war be forced upon us. Naturally I was interested in the going out of a company of volunteers eighty years ago from this County. This company, the Pocahontas Rescuers, took about a week to march eighty miles, to learn war in the raw. So—

The Pocahontas Rescuers marched from Huntersville about 10 a. m. on May 18, 1861. A large crowd of ladies and gentlemen were present and at the moment of marching hardly an eye that was not wet with tears. Many gentlemen and ladies accompanied us to the Bridge. Then the Rev. Mr. Flaherty addressed the crowd and all meekly bowed the knee in the public road while he fervently addressed a prayer in behalf of those marching and of the parents and friends left behind. Halted at night in front of William Gibson's and the company were entertained by Mr and Mrs Gibson, John and John B. Hannah and I. M. Hogsett.

Looking around in the court house for something to print. I came upon some old papers in the hand writing of General William Skeen, which gave the roster of "The Pocahontas Rescuers," an infantry company organized when war threatened between the states, back in 1860. I print it herewith. Also the constitution and by-laws.

The company was mustered in on Saturday, May 18, 1861, and marched on that day to defend the sacred soil of Virginia from invasion by Federal forces in the northwest.

They met the invaders at Phillippi, Harbour County, and had no luck in repelling them.
